

Welcome to one of the Scottish Borders' best-kept secrets: Newcastleton

The Liddesdale Hotel is located in Douglas Square at the heart of Newcastleton (sometimes referred to as Copshaw Holm); a 17th century village planned by the 3rd Duke of Buccleuch, set in the peaceful, unspoilt countryside of Roxburghshire. As such it combines the relaxing aspect of a remote rural settlement whilst being only half an hour's drive to Carlisle and the motorway network. Despite the decline of traditional industries, Newcastleton remains a very healthy and vibrant rural economy, assisted by the development of tourism and many new small businesses.

Local Area

There are lots of things to see and do from walking, golf, horse riding and fishing to more extreme activities like mountain bike riding at the new 7Stanes bike trails.

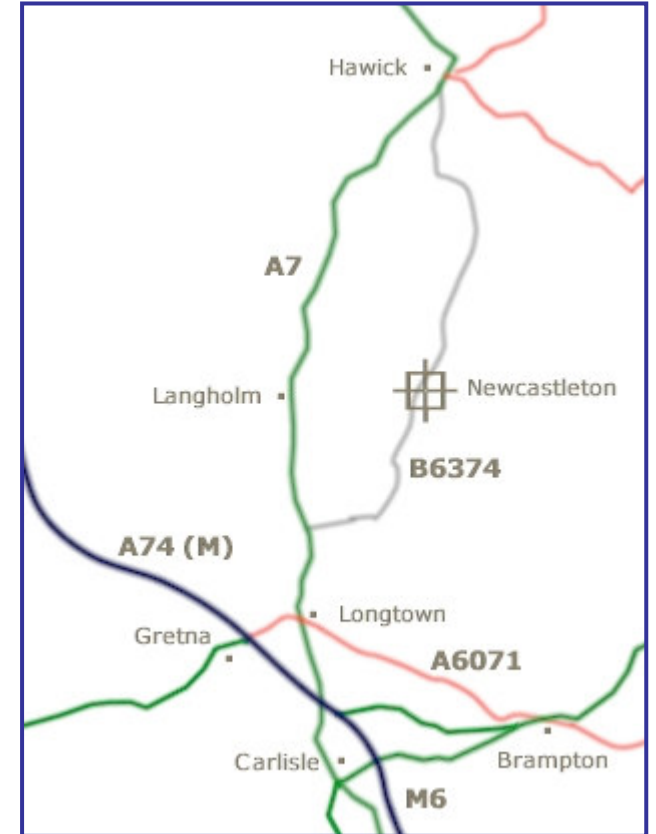

The village is the proud home of the Newcastleton Traditional Music Festival, Copshaw Common Riding and the Holm Show. During these events it is essential to book accommodation or dining reservations early to avoid disappointment as we are very busy serving locals and visitors alike.

Newcastleton is also an important location to anyone interested in Border Reiver history with various clan links, particularly Armstrong and Elliot.

Location

Newcastleton is situated on the scenic B6357, approximately 20 miles from Hawick and 15 miles from Longtown (near Carlisle).

We love food and use the best produce from local suppliers in unpretentious but imaginative signature dishes. Our food is complimented by an imaginative and regularly changing wine list. Our keg and cask ales and lagers are supplied by Scotland's leading independent brewers Belhaven.

Weddings and Functions

Only 19 miles from romantic Gretna Green we have excellent facilities for small weddings, from formal wedding breakfasts to buffets and discos. For that special finishing touch our four poster suite is less than a dozen stairs away so a partied-out bridegroom does not have to do too much carrying! We can arrange for our finest champagne and chocolates to meet you there.

Our function room can be configured for a variety of different meeting, with or without catering. Up to 80 delegates can be accommodated depending upon the chosen layout. We will be introducing full Audio-Visual facilities during 2009. We are also a BT Openzone WiFi Internet hotspot.
